PRESIDENT URGES INCREASED ALUMNI CONSCIOUSNESS

In a letter accompanying this issue of BRYANETTE, Thomas Taylor '54, president of the Bryan Alumni Association, challenges each member to pray for Bryan College, to send more students to Bryan, and to give for the alumni project. Will you hear? and heed?

The expulsion of our missionaries from Cuba and Congo is a grim warning that the Enemy of the Gospel is closing in. The minds of our own youth are being subtly persuaded against the "Faith of our Fathers" by the materialistic philosophy in our secular

ALUMNI BRING HIGH SCHOOL GUESTS

Thirteen former Bryanites accepted the invitation to bring prospective students to campus for the High School Guest week and Feb. 10-12. Wonderful weather (replacing the snow storm of last year) and a full program of activities made a pleasant week end for more than 50 student guests. The alumni visitors were:

Judy (King '57) and Jim '57, Barth, Poland, O.; Dale Fehl '60, Knoxville, Tenn.; Joan (Harrington x'56) and George Harris '54, and Bertha Vogt '57, Knoxville, Tenn.; Allen Jewett '52, Bradenton, Fla.; Jean Sentz '60, Asheville, N.C.; Lary Thompson '60, Neptune, N.J.; Evelyn Whitlow '54, Dunlap, Tenn.; and James '60 and Miriam '60 Wiggins, Hammond, Ind.

Charles Taber '51, Winona Lake, Ind.; and Helen Gow '48, Columbus, Ind., also brought high schoolers with them for the missionary conference. Other missionary alumni are listed on the enclosed program.

schools. Let's give more young people an opportunity to have a Bible-based education in a distinctly Christian atmosphere--tell them about Bryan, help them to find answers to their problems by your prayers; counsel, and contributions.

Remember, our alumni project this year is aimed in that very direction--more students for Bryan and more financial help for the program of advertising, student procurement, and our own alumni office expense. Let's make the best use of our freedom and our financial prosperity to promote Christian education and not wait until the Enemy of our liberty forces us into a corner! It can happen here!

Alumni contributions to date for the year's goal of $8,500 have mounted to a total of $1,735. March brings us to the half-way point in our project year until homecoming. Will you send your "half-way" gift before the end of March? The investment you make today will bring continuing dividends tomorrow.
